INTO member launches her second collection of stories for the Aoife Beary Trust Fund

Kathryn Crowley, principal of St Louise de Marillac in Ballyfermot will launch her second collection of stories in June. Room for One More: Memories and Make-Believe depicts snapshots of the author's childhood in Killarney, her time in a boarding school in Co Cork, her college years in Dublin and her subsequent travels.

The short stories that these memoirs inspire range from an emigrant's Christmas in Australia in 'Waiting for Christmas', a drama in a nursing home in 'Returning Home' and a sinister feud in an Argentine village in the prize-winning story 'And Then Came the War'.

Kathryn will launch her collection in Ballyboden St Enda's GAA clubhouse on 30 June at 8 p.m. All are welcome to attend.

Profits from the sale of the book will be donated to the Aoife Beary Trust Fund. Aoife Beary was celebrating her 21st birthday in Berkeley, California last June when a balcony collapsed, killing many of her friends and leaving herself and others with life-changing injuries. Aoife is the daughter of Angela Beary, an INTO member who is deputy principal of Dalkey School Project NS.

Room for One More: Memories and Make-Believe will be available for sale at www.emuink.ie from 30 June. More information at www.kathryncrowley.com and the Friends of Aoife Beary Facebook page.
